J. C. JACKSON ON TRIAL

SYNOPSIS OF TESTIMONY TAKEN
AT TODAY'S SESSION OF
DISTRICT COURT.

Late Monday afternoon the empanelling of the jury in the Jackson case was completed and the taking of evidence began this morning. Following is the list of jurymen: Claud Russell, Frank Chambers, F. C. Sims, I. R. Gilmore, W. M. Pegg, E. H. McKendree, Charles Grindstaff, J. L. Ballard, W. L. Gilmore, H. Click, J. L. Dashner, C. G. Shelton.

The contention of the state is that the motive behind the alleged murder was the desire of the defendant, Jackson, to come in possession of the property of John Pirtle, the deceased, that he was shot in the left side of the head and that deceased was right handed.

Contrary to the usual custom the defense made its statement immediately following that of the state. Its contention was that the relations between Jackson and Pirtle were most cordial; that Pirtle often spoke of what a good step-father he had; that deceased was a confirmed drunkard and often declared that since he could not break the habit he would kill himself and had either carried out his threat or been murdered by another. The defense then moved that the case be dismissed on the ground that the indictment was invalid. The motion was promptly overruled.

Attorney Ben Williams conducted the examination for the state.

Dr. S. C. Davis: Occupation physician; deceased was nephew of witness; deceased was right handed; defendant lived on property of deceased; real estate of Pirtle worth $10,000.

J. Y. Davis: Pirtle's land worth about $10,000, personal property about $1,500.

Geo. H. Barion: Surveyor; made blue print map of ground in vicinity of where body was found; also testified concerning various points indicated on the map.

Erwin Upton: Lived about a mile from John Pirtle at time of his death; was with him the night before disappearance; Pirtle drank and could not get him to house; saw him again after being found dead; was shot about left ear; was right handed. Cross examination: Pirtle had been drunk several days prior to death; seemed to be on good terms with Jackson; often carried gun.

Charley Thompson: Defense objected to his testifying on the grounds that his address had been given as Roff when he really lived at Allen. It was shown that he had moved from Roff to Allen about June 7 and was served with notice June 10. Court overruled objection. Witness knew Pirtle; lived on his place about 300 yards from Jackson home. Jackson owned a pistol, 38-calibre on 45 frame; Pirtle owned 45-calibre gun; saw Pirtle morning of 13th riding sorrel horse without saddle or bridle. Jackson rode away with him; Jackson rode gray horse; Jackson had some whiskey the day before; helped search for Pirtle; body found about 1 o'clock the 13th; no sign of powder burn about bullet wound; gun found had one empty shell and five loaded; Jackson later had talk with witness; wanted to know if witness had seen him and John ride off together; being told that he had seen them defendant said if witness would swear he had seen them separate and go in opposite directions he would pay him well. Cross examination: Witness knew that some suspected himself of killing Pirtle; had a scuffle over a Winchester the day before the death; witness refused to hitch up Pirtle's team; Pirtle picked up gun; in scuffle two or three shots were fired.

Ora Reagan: Was picking cotton for Charley Thompson on John Pirtle's place at time of death of latter; saw scuffle over gun between Pirtle and Thompson; seemed to be good natured affair; Pirtle fired two or three shots into the ground; Jackson took gun and all parties took a drink and separated; saw Pirtle about 7 o'clock on morning of Sept. 13; Jackson came over to Thompson's after dark saying he was uneasy about Johnny and wanted witness to help hunt him; seemed to be bothered; went south and east hunting him; searched all night; Jackson rode white horse in search; rough country where body was found; saw the body after it was found, but was not very close; gun was a 38; wound looked to be powder burned. Cross examination: Did not see Jackson and Pirtle ride away together that morning.

Mrs. M. B. Barker: Lived about half or three-quarters of a mile from Johnny Pirtle's at time of his death; saw Pirtle riding sorrel horse bare-back on morning of Sept. 13; was traveling southeast; was fifty or seventy-five yards away; another man was riding with him on gray horse; was between 9 and 11 o'clock; did not know man; learned afternoon of next day that Pirtle was missing; do not know Charley Thompson.

S. A. Poe: Knew Johnny Pirtle when he saw him; lived a mile and a quarter from Pirtle and Johnson; saw Pirtle on morning of Sept. 13; judged it was Pirtle by horse and dogs; was in company of another man; was 480 steps from witness; knew Jackson when he saw him; man with Pirtle was riding white horse; learned that night that Pirtle was missing; Pirtle's body found about a mile from where he saw them; saw Pirtle's body; never examined wound closely; horse seen today was not one man was riding; did not know whether man was Jackson; about 30 minutes after Johnny passed saw his horse and dogs come back; took horse home; was about 10 o'clock; nobody at home put horse in lot; stayed there a couple of minutes; never saw anyone picking cotton; did not remember testifying before grand jury that it was a gray horse.

O. E. Tompkins: Was acquainted with Pirtle from childhood; under impression Pirtle was left handed; lived about a mile from him; saw two men day before deceased was found dead about 200 yards from house of witness; judged one to be Pirtle and the other Jackson; was riding light bay or sorrel horse, other riding gray horse; learning that night that Pirtle was missing.

Mrs. Minnie Smith: Saw Johnny Pirtle on morning of day he was missing, riding sorrel horse; another man was with him riding gray horse.

The above is a synopsis of the testimony that had been taken up to 4 o'clock this afternoon.

The case is attracting large numbers of spectators who in spite of the heat remain constantly in the court room throughout the sessions. To add to the comfort of the attorneys and jury a ceiling fan was placed in the room today at noon. Present indications are that Thursday will be the earliest possible time the trial can end and it is possible that it will not be concluded until Friday.

W. O. W. AND CIRCLE EXEMPLIFY WORK—FRANCIS TEAM MAKES SPLENDID SHOWING.

Monday evening witnessed a very large and enthusiastic meeting of both the W. O. W. and Woodmen Circle, the occasion being the class initiation.

The first hour of the meeting was held at the city hall where fully 300 were assembled. Addresses on the work of the order were delivered by R. L. Forgan, state manager of the W. O. W., Joe A. Edwards, district manager, and Mrs. M. G. Meadows, state manager of the Circle. The Circle then repaired to their lodge room where the Ada team exemplified the work of the order, and the Woodmen remained in the hall.

The work for the Woodmen was put on by the Francis team and it was splendidly executed. The Francis team proved itself to be well drilled and also well informed in every detail, and to them must be given the credit for the success of the occasion.

The W. O. W. initiated six members and the Circle thirty.

At the close of the evening's work cigars were passed around. The circle served punch to their members and visitors.

Arms Broken by Colt.

Guthrie, Ok., July 8.—John Wallace, Guthrie merchant and peach orchardist, has both arms broken below the elbows as the result of attempting to drive a colt. The colt became frightened and began kicking, his hoofs striking and breaking Wallace's arms Claim Boll Weevil Conquered.

New Orleans, La., July 8.—The government experts here are of the belief that the boll weevil is no longer a serious menace to cotton. Despite the large number of weevils this year Louisiana and Mississippi bid fair to produce record crops. Careful attention is declared to be the secret of the victory over the pest. By this is meant the keeping of the fields clear of litter and rubbish, picking off the punctured bolls and burning them, and exposing as much of the plant to the sun as possible. This latter is accomplished by leaving more space between rows and plants and by trimming out as much of the plant as possible to prevent too much "weed." The farmers generally appear to have followed the advice of the government experts along these lines. Even the negro farmers seem to have learned that it is money in their pockets to keep their fence corners cleaned up so that they will not afford harboring places for the over-the-winter weevils.

J. C. JACKSON ON TRIAL

SYNOPSIS OF TESTIMONY TAKEN
AT TODAY'S SESSION OF
DISTRICT COURT.

Late Monday afternoon the empanelling of the jury in the Jackson case was completed and the taking of evidence began this morning. Following is the list of jurymen: Claud Russell, Frank Chambers, F. C. Sims, I. R. Gilmore, W. M. Pegg, E. H. McKendree, Charles Grindstaff, J. L. Ballard, W. L. Gilmore, H. Click, J. L. Dashner, C. G. Shelton.

Prayer Books in Congress.

Washington, July 8.—For the first time in its history the House today was supplied with a prayer book issued from the government printing office. The volume consists of 137 pages and contains the prayers delivered by Rev. Henry N. Couden, chaplain of the House, each morning during the Sixty-Second congress before the active business of the legislative days began.

Speaker Clark has written the foreword for the little volume, which was in the morning mail of members today.

In the preface the speaker refers feelingly to Dr. Couden and declares that congress never would have ordered the prayers published at public expense had they not been "full of piety, sympathy and philanthropy."

Continuing, Mr. Clark says: "They are earnest, helpful, hopeful. In publishing this little book, we think we are rendering a public service and we send it forth with our blessings upon the blind chaplain," who occupies a warm place in our hearts."

TONIGHT AT CITY HALL

EVERY MAN AND WOMAN INTERESTED IN ADA URGED TO COME

Every citizen of Ada is urged to be present at the meeting of the Commercial Club and the Civic and Cemetery Association at the City Hall this evening.

The city is now in Holland's Cleanest Town Contest. To win the prize in this contest will be an achievement of which the people of any city should justly be proud. Ada has many natural advantages that should enable us to win in this contest provided we are willing to do a little hard work.

Ada's beautiful, well drained location has often been commented upon; we have an abundant supply of the best water in the state, as everyone knows; our school buildings are unexcelled; our miles of concrete side walks and many shade trees speak well for the progressive spirit of the city. All that remains for us to do in order to win in this contest is to fully develop the advantages that God and the early citizens of the town have given us. If we will fight weeds, flies, filth and dust for the next two months, we will win this contest.

Come out to the City Hall tonight and let's get busy.

M. C. WILSON,
Vice Pres. Ada Commercial Club.

Beautiful Women.

Nothing adds more to the beauty of women than luxuriant hair. The regular use of Meritol Hair Tonic will keep the hair healthy, promote its growth, keep it clean and bright, and gives it that wavy appearance so much admired. Ramsey Drug Co., sole agents.

Always Fairy Tales.

There has never been a language spoken that has not been used for telling fairy tales. Whether in hot lands or cold, among savages or the most cultivated nations—why, not a moment passes in which some one, somewhere, is not telling a fairy tale, or listening to one, or reading one, or perhaps writing a new one. Which makes it delightfully probable that we shall always have them with us, however scarce the fairies may have made themselves in these prosaic and practical days.—St. Nicholas.

A bad taste in the mouth comes from a disordered stomach, and back to that is usually a torpid liver. A condition which invites disease. HERBINE is the remedy needed. It corrects the stomach and makes the liver active and regular. Price 50c. Sold by Ramsey Drug Co.

Once Exclusive Pet of Royalty. The Pekingese spaniel, or "Hon dog," now so popular among dog lovers, was formerly an exclusive possession of China's rulers, and it was a capital offense to remove one of the diminutive creatures from the imperial palace. A pair of them were brought to Europe after the capture of Peking in 1860, and from these and a few others the American specimens of the breed are descended.

A diver seized by octopus. A naval diver at Toulon was suddenly attacked by a giant octopus while under water in the harbor. He gave the hoisting signal and was hauled to the surface, together with the octopus, whose tentacles, said to be 25 feet long, were wrapped around him. The diver was unconscious. The octopus held fast to the diver until it was stabbed to death. It weighed 135 pounds, and the suckers on its tentacles were as big as half-dollar pieces.—London Mail.

FREEDOM FOR "BLACK BART"

Marquette, Mich., July 8.—"Black Bart" Holzhay, whose criminal career was one of the most spectacular ever recorded in the United States, will be released tomorrow from the Marquette prison, after having served twenty-four years of a life sentence imposed on him in 1889 for murder. His release is made possible by legislation enacted two years ago, which extends the benefits of the parole law to convicts under-going life sentence.

Holzhay is now 47 years old. When he was received at the prison he was illiterate and possessed a record as a desperado, stage coach and train robber. He gave the prison much trouble during the first few years, but following a surgical operation his character changed completely and he became a model prisoner. He has since been a student and has given himself a good education. For many years he has been the prison librarian and photographer.

Because of his swarthy appearance and ill kept beard Holzhay gained the name of "Black Bart" the bandit, and under that sobriquet he became notorious as the most picturesque criminal in the histories of Wisconsin and Michigan—the terror of two states. His exploits in the woods of northern Michigan rivaled those of Jesse James. A peaceful lumberjack for a long while, he suddenly broke into a series of crimes which continued until the mention of his name struck terror to the hearts of travelers in the north woods. Stages were stopped one after the other on their trips between the lumber camps and the town and their passengers held up, the mail sacks rifled and every article of value stolen.

Finding stage coaches too tame, Holzhay took to holding up trains, going through the coaches and robbing every passenger. Large rewards were placed on his head by the government and the railroads, but he was fearless and was not captured. The rewards grew as his depredations continued until they totaled the sum of $2,500. Every man in the woods was watching for him, but when Holzhay appeared in their camps and demanded food they feared to lay hands upon him.

Holzhay's career of crime continued un molested, banks, stores, trains, stage coaches and private houses alike falling into his hands and getting out again with less than they possessed before. Finally Holzhay planned to hold up the stage which passed Lake Gogebic, learning that several Chicago bankers, among them A. E. Fleischbein, were to be on board. He stopped the coach and demanded the money from the bankers. Fleischbein reached his hand into his pocket, but instead of cash he pulled out a revolver. Before he could shoot the bandit had fired and Fleischbein fell, mortally wounded. A second man tried to resist, but Holzhay shot him also, searched the men and got away.

The authorities of two states took up the pursuit. Trains were watched and stages guarded. But for a long time Holzhay evaded his pursuers. He slept in the woods, only going to the villages for necessary food.

It was when he went to Republic that the bandit was captured. Village Marshal Glode recognized "Black Bart," and, aided by several men, lured Holzhay to an upstairs room. There all pounced upon the bandit. It took three men to bind the desperado after he had made a fierce fight and attempted to shoot his captors.

In his cell Holzhay was as fearless as he was holding up a train or a coach. On one occasion he stole a table knife, sharpened it on the floor of his cell, and held one of the guards at bay in his cell when he came to take the prisoner to work. Many other times he gave the officials much trouble during the early years of his confinement. Finally the physicians decided that he was insane and he was sent to the asylum at Ionia. There he was operated upon, and then returned to Marquette.

Since the operation Holzhay has been a different man. He has given no trouble whatever, his demeanor has been as gentle as that of a child, and all his time when not at work has been devoted to reading. He is familiar with the history and politics of every nation and has written many essays on sociological and philosophical subjects. He invested the small earnings he had saved in copper stocks and his savings jumped to several thousands, with the help of Warden Russell, who placed his money for him. He is now an expert in the doings of the market. It is believed he has saved enough money to keep him the rest of his days. He probably will go to live with relatives in Wisconsin.

BANK FAILURE AT PITTSBURG

Pittsburg, July 7.—Differences of long standing with the treasury department concerning the character and value of certain assets of the former First National Bank of Pittsburg, which was merged with the Second National Bank of Pittsburg last March under the title of the First-Second National Bank of Pittsburg culminated this morning in the closing of the institution by order of Deputy Comptroller of the Currency T. P. Kane.

Directors and officers of the institution were in conference yesterday and last night with special bank examiners. Early this morning notices were posted on the bank doors that it had been ordered closed. The Pittsburg clearing house association has taken charge of the situation generally and announced that no further trouble is expected.

None of the officials of the bank would make a statement this morning announcing that affairs were in the hands of the government officials.

To Make Rubber From Waste. That artificial rubber can be made from waste cotton, especially the bolls that fall to ripen, is the claim of a Philadelphia scientist.

Be Modest.

Never seem to affect the character in which you wish to shine. Modesty is the only sure bait when you angle for praise. By modesty I do not mean timidity and awkward bashfulness. On the contrary, be inwardly firm and steady, know your own value, but take care to let nobody discover that you know it. Whatever real merit you have, other people will discover and people always magnify their own discoveries, as they lessen those of others.—Lord Chesterfield.

Spilling Children.

Little children give their mother the headache; but if she lets them have their own way, when they grow up to be great children they will give her the heartache. Fondness spoils many, and letting little faults alone spoils more. Gardens that are never weeded will grow very little worth gathering. All watering and no hoeing will make a very bad crop. A child may have too much of its mother's love and in the long run it may turn out that it had too little.—C. H. Spurgeon.

CITIZENS OF NORTH

SIDE PROTEST

A. Kilpatrick, W. H. Rogers and other citizens of the north side are protesting very vigorously against the old city well being made the dumping spot of the garbage of the city. They report that the well is being filled up with all manner of garbage and that the stench is something fierce for quite a distance. Not only that, but a great many in that part of the city use well water and they fear that this will be the means of contaminating their wells and starting an epidemic of some kind. Most of them are some distance from the water mains and are not able to afford making a connection. They have no objection to the old well being filled up but they do object to the garbage filling.

Five Cent Advance in Oil.

Tulsa, Ok., July 8.—An advance of 5c in Mid-Continent oil, posted by all of the purchasing agencies today, means an additional $8,000 daily to the producers of crude oil. The price is now 93c. This is the largest single advance made in this field, as independent purchasers of oil are paying a premium of at least 10c a barrel and are taking almost a fourth of the daily productions in the Mid-Continent field. Much of this oil will now sell at above $1 a barrel.

Now it is predicted Mid-Continent oil will be selling at $1.25 before the year ends.

W. T. Melton took his oath of office as county superintendent Monday morning and is now in full charge. He is not altogether a stranger there for during the past month or two he has filled the position of deputy under Supt. Pierce.

Pontotoc county has been particularly fortunate in this office. During his term of almost six years Supt. Pierce has labored diligently and successfully to bring the schools of Pontotoc county to a high state of efficiency and he has succeeded well. When he entered upon his duties at statehood he found nothing except a large expanse of unorganized territory, but he leaves it well organized, with dozens of well built school houses and fine system of schools.

Supt. Melton is a young man of energy, ambition and ability.

In point of service he ranks among the oldest teachers of the county and his path has led all the way from a small rural school in territorial days through the city school of Roff. He is a worthy successor to Supt. Pierce and during his term Pontotoc county

Burglars who broke into a Paris flat recently removed all the fashionable pannier dresses belonging to the mistress of the house and left a number of old skirts. "The police," says a Paris correspondent, "suspect a fashion expert." We, on the other hand, are inclined to wonder if the burglary was not committed by the lady's husband, who may easily have been a simple-hearted fellow who wished to see his wife becomingly dressed for a week or two.—By-stander.

the Blood.

A few doses of that wonderful blood purifier, S. S. S., will start activities in the cellular tissues of the body and soon show decided changes in the skin. The skin is but a fine network of tiny blood vessels, and the specific action of S. S. S. is declared to be a pronounced stimulation of the activity of these cells. Certain it is that in a surprisingly short time any skin eruption shows a most remarkable change; it begins to dry up; the skin scales off in tiny flakes, and soon a layer of clear, healthy and firm tissue results. The reason for this is in the peculiar stimulation of S. S. S., which enables the cells in the skin to select from the blood the nutriment it requires for regeneration.

This fact has been demonstrated year in and year out in a wonderful number of cases of severe skin diseases that had seemed to be incurable.

You can obtain S. S. S. at any well stocked drug store, if you insist upon it, but be sure you are not talked into something "just as good."

S. S. S. is prepared by the Swift Specific Co., 180 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. Write for their illustrated book on skin diseases.

OKLAHOMA'S DEMONSTRATION FARM DEPARTMENT

In perhaps no state in the Union have the agricultural interests been given more attention and more material assistance than in the state of Oklahoma. Each legislature since statehood has generously considered the problems of agriculture tending toward the development of the agricultural resources of the state and in none of these movements was more effective work accomplished than through the creation of the department of Demonstration Farms. The department as created by the state conforms largely to the plans now in operation in various other states in the Union, and the following brief sketch of the history of the department outlines what has been accomplished during the short period that the department has been in operation.

Under the present law the State Board of Agriculture may contract with some reliable farmer in each county to maintain and operate a demonstration farm of forty acres. The farmer furnishes the land and labor and the state furnishes the seed and gives instructions for the handling of the crop. Should the farmer fail on account of unavoidable conditions to make sufficient crops to pay for the rent of the land all labor done upon the crops, at the price of thirty cents per hour for labor of man and team, the state reimburses him for the loss sustained. However, if the crops harvested should more than repay the farmer under the terms of the contract the surplus does not revert to the state but to the farmer. Under this law the Demonstration Farm Department has been operating since 1909 and has accomplished the following results:

It has maintained an average of fifty demonstration farms through three very bad crop years and these farmers have each year shown profits above all costs. These demonstration farms have, in most instances, been object lessons to the farmers of the community in the proper methods of good farming. They have all been a source of reliable seed of standard

Do you shop in a brisk, active store, or in a dull store?
Advertising makes bright stores. Failure to advertise goes hand in hand with dullness and stagnation.

Advertising brushes away cobwebs and dust, smartens windows, quickens the intelligence of salesman, and lets in the sunlight.

Advertising makes the merchant think of you—of your wants and needs; makes him anxious to serve you to your liking and advantage.

Advertising keeps stock form having birthdays.

Advertising acquaints you with new things, and so brightens your home, your life, your person.

Advertising keeps a business from growing lazy and stupid. Advertising injects good blood into the arteries of business, and keeps it healthful and active.

acreage of peanuts, sugar beets, sweet clover, feterita and other drouth-resistant crops.

This Department and the Farmers' Institute Department are preparing a far more exhaustive manual which is designed to deal with every important problem which affects the interest of Oklahoma farmers, presuming that the practical information which this contains will be disseminated as widely as the recently published manual. Its beneficial effects on agricultural exploitation in our state will be felt in a very marked degree.

The legislatures of practically every progressive agricultural state in the Union are making liberal appropriations for the department of demonstration farms. In each of the several states, the department is operated in a little different manner, but the appropriations for the work are always liberal. Some of the states have appropriated to the demonstration farm work sums ranging from $20,000 to $40,000. That the demonstration farm department is being maintained and appropriations increased in practically every state in the union is sufficient evidence as to the benefits derived from such departments.

The work for the department in Oklahoma is only in its infancy. Michigan, Wisconsin, and Iowa have followed this plan for almost a generation, and the results accomplished in Oklahoma since 1909 have been more marked than in any other state in the union. The continuance of this department, with adequate appropriations for its maintenance, and operation, will materially aid in placing the agricultural standing of Oklahoma far above what it is at the present time, and will enable us to take our rank among the leading agricultural states of the union.—Oklahoma State Board of Agriculture, Demonstration Farm Department, by D. S. Woodson, Superintendent.

To Vote on Commission Question.

Sulphur, Ok., July 8.—Tomorrow the people will vote on a commission charter for this place.

Shop where your wants and needs are uppermost in the mind of the merchant. Shop in the store which reflects you, which you dominate. Shop where your money returns to you in better goods, better values, better service.

Shun the shop that is dumb and dark and dreary; keep away from the shop that never speaks to you, never smiles at you, never bothers about you. Reward by your custom the merchant who lives to serve you and who is doing his utmost to build up this community; who takes you into his confidence by means of advertisements in your local newspapers.

Boy Owes Life to Dog.

A number of young boys were playing on the banks of the Bolton and Bury canal at Pendleton, near Manchester, England, the other afternoon when one of them slipped into the canal, which is nine or ten feet deep. A retriever dog playing near by at once jumped into the water and brought the boy to a place of safety.

Packing Food in Firms.

In Germany the use of firms is coming into more and more favor for packing food which is transported either short or long distances. The practice became common in England before it gained equal vogue in Germany, and the results are said to be excellent, especially in shipping fresh fruit, butter, fish and other food products which require unusual care.

Surpassed Them All.

A near race riot happened in a southern town. The negroes gathered in one crowd and the whites in another. The whites fired their revolvers into the air, and the negroes took to their heels. Next day a plantation owner said to one of his men: "Sam, were you in that crowd that gathered last night?" "Yassir." "Did you run like the wind, Sam?" "No sir. I didn't run like the wind, 'deed I didn't. But I passed two niggers that was running like the wind."—Pennsylvania Grit.

Most Prized of Gems.

The sapphires of Ceylon are among the most beautiful gems in the world. They range from soft, velvety blue to peacock blue, graduating to almost faultless white. Sapphires are also found in greens and yellows, the former shade being known as the Oriental emerald, and the latter as the Oriental topaz. There is also a red sapphire, or Ceylon ruby, which is as valuable as the finest Burmese rubies.

Her Faith Lost.

A little Boston girl was coaxed to own to her aunt that she had done something which she ought not, and which she stoutly denied. Finally, such undeniable proof of her guilt was put up before her that she could no longer keep her denial. She turned to her aunt, and said: "Well, Aunt Kattie, you can't trust anybody, nowadays!"

The Telephone is An Extra Clerk

Suppose you could hire another clerk who would be head-salesman, order clerk, and messenger boy all in one. Would you, if you could get him for a tenth of the profit you could teach him to make for you? Of course you would!

Such a clerk is a Bell Telephone, and thousands of merchants take orders from hundreds of thousands of customers over it every day.

If you're getting along without telephone service, you're not getting the profits your competitor is.

Ask the Business Office for rates, to-day.

WORLD SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION

Burich, Switzerland, July 8.—Today saw the formal opening in Zurich of the World's Seventh Sunday School Convention, for which preparations have been going forward for more than two years. The prediction that the convention would be the greatest gathering of its kind ever held seems certain of fulfillment. Some conception of its size and representative character may be had from the statement that the delegates from the United States and Canada alone number more than one thousand. Add to this the delegations of several hundred each from practically every country of Europe and some from South Africa, Australia, South America and the leading Asiatic countries, and the result is the largest international religious gathering that the world has ever seen.

The American delegates took a leading part in the proceedings of this, the opening day of the congress, as they will at all the subsequent sessions, which will continue over a period of eight days. The formal opening took place in the great Tonhalle, the interior of which has been decorated for the occasion with the flags of all nations. The presiding officer was Dr. George W. Bailey of Philadelphia, who delivered his address in English. Copies of the address in German and French were distributed among the delegates.

The musical features of the program attracted much attention and favorable comment. The Tonhalle Zurich Symphony orchestra of forty-five pieces, one of the finest in Europe, furnished the instrumental music. A quintet of famous Swiss yodlers and a choir of 300 voices, under the leadership of Prof. A. J. Buckner of Cincinnati, added to the attractions.

During the ensuing week the morning sessions will be devoted largely to addresses, reports and the business of the convention. The afternoons will be occupied with conferences and the evenings will be given over to inspirational and educational addresses by speakers of wide prominence. Among the Americans who will be heard are Bishop Vincent, Bishop Hartzell, H. J. Heinz of Pittsburgh, Dr. Robert E. Speer of New York, Rev. Dr. Floyd Tomkins of Philadelphia, Dr. and Mrs. Wilbur F. Crafts, Miss Anna Jarvis, founder of "Mothers' Day" and E. K. Warren of Three Oaks, Mich., the founder of the international Sunday school movement.

Sunday will be the most notable day of the convention. It will be ushered in with a sunrise prayer meeting, and the regular services in the churches at 9 o'clock, the usual hour in Switzerland, will follow. The pulpits will be occupied by the noted churchmen who are among the delegates. Sunday afternoon will be featured by a children's parade, with addresses at the Tonhalle and a mass meeting with the general topic, "Temperance and Good Citizenship." A notable service of an hour will be held at the Grossmünster Cathedral, the church of which Ulrich Zwingli, the great reformer, preached as pastor.

Another strong feature of the convention will be the Sunday school roll call of nations, with five-minute responses from representatives of the United States, Canada, Mexico, England, Ireland, Scotland, Wales, France, Germany, Spain, Italy, Sweden, Russia, Bulgaria, Austria-Hungary, Denmark, Turkey, Norway, the Netherlands, the Philippines, Japan, Korea, China, India, Iceland, the various countries of South America, and several countries of Africa.
